"Siege of Eddyville" Enters Third Day As Murderers Hold Own

Three Convicts "With All to Gain and Nothing to Lose" Are Still Defending Bullet-Riddled Building From Guards and Soldiers—More Troops Sent and Desperadoes May Be Forced Out Soon.

(By The Associated Press.)
EDDYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 5.—Rattle of musketry and the heavier roar of machine guns was easily audible shortly before noon here today, echoing from the walls of the state penitentiary which is situated a mile from the city limits.

(By The Associated Press.)
EDDYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 5.—Three lone convicts, who for over 2 days have defied efforts of the executive and military forces to dislodge them from an improvised fortress in the penitentiary prison here, seemed assured of holding their position until evening, following an announcement today by Warden John Chilton.

The effective hiding places the convicts possessed was said by Warden Chilton to be the main difficulty faced by the military. The convicts evidently had used four ninety gallon iron steam boilers in the front of the building and a steel sheeted water mixer in the rear as hiding places.

(By The Associated Press.)
EDDYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 5.—The "siege of Eddyville" entered its third day today. Their hopes red with the life blood of three prison guards, Monte Walters, Lawrence Griffith and Harry Ferland, convicted murderers still lurked behind the bullet-riddled walls of the two-story brick mess hall of the western state penitentiary.

B. G. Lewis who two weeks ago strained the ligaments of his back when emerging from his furniture store on Union street, is gradually improving at his home. He was helping to carry out a piece of furniture from the store when his foot slipped causing him to wrench his back so severely that it was necessary to remove him to his home in an ambulance. He has been confined to his bed most of the time since then.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Murphy and their little daughter leave Danville today for their home at Thomasville, Ga. "Herb" said this morning that he was going through the country in his car and that he expected to pull Charlotte, N. C. tonight. He stated that he expected to return to Danville in November on a brief business visit and that he might make one or two trips here before he moves back to this city to prepare for the next baseball season. The plan of the trip consists to the pinnacle of fame this year, said that the season here had not enriched him but that he felt satisfied in cinching the pennant.

W. E. CUNNINGHAM WILL BE FREED BY GOVERNOR

William E. Cunningham serving a four year term in the Virginia penitentiary for shooting and wounding his wife, Mrs. Cora Cunningham will be a free man the day before Thanksgiving Day—November 28.

This information was brought to Danville this morning in a letter which reached Cunningham's attorney, Harry Wooding, Jr., from Governor Trinkle in which the governor said that he had given the case a careful study and that "taking everything into consideration I feel as if the ends of justice will have been met if this man serves until November 28th."

Governor Trinkle's letter bearing on the Cunningham conditional pardon is as follows: "October 4, 1923. "Mr. Harry Wooding, Jr., "Danville, Va.

"Dear Sir: "I have today considered the matter of the conditional pardon of William E. Cunningham, convicted in July, 1922, of malicious wounding and sentenced to four years in the penitentiary but who was in jail from March, 1922.

"I find that this man has never been previously charged with violating the law; that he will have served about twenty and one-half months, including his jail time; his record in the penitentiary has been exemplary and the penitentiary authorities speak in most favorable terms of him and he will be glad to see leniency extended to him. I feel that his conditional pardon is recommended by the judge, the Commonwealth's attorney not making a recommendation in the case at this time but leaving the matter, as he expresses it, to my good judgment; nine of the jurors also recommended leniency as well as the mayor of Danville, the city clerk, the clerk and deputy clerk of the corporation court, an ex-member of the Legislature and now Commonwealth's attorney of Pittsylvania county, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, the postmaster and many other prominent and responsible citizens. In fact further that the injury sustained by the wife was not a serious one and that she has entirely recovered and has obtained a divorce from the prisoner during his incarceration and is now living in New York City.

"I have been able to make me inclined to believe that the prisoner was laboring under great excitement and mental strain at the time the crime was committed.

"Taking everything into consideration I feel as if the ends of justice will have been met if this man serves until November 28th—the day before Thanksgiving—and I am directing that a conditional pardon be issued at that time provided of course, that his prison record remains good. The conditional pardon is granted upon the express condition that should Cunningham further violate the law his conditional pardon will be revoked and he will have to serve out the remainder of his sentence. I hope, however, that he will show his appreciation of the leniency that is being shown him and of his many friends' confidence in him by going absolutely straight in the future and

Report of Physician Is Awaited Though Jury Extends Probe

Prices On Better Grades Is Higher; Sales Still Light

Prices paid for the better grades of tobacco on the Danville market this morning were reported as being somewhat improved. Sales were lighter than yesterday, approximately 30,000 pounds being on the floor with the sales completed before 11 o'clock. No general improvement in quality of the crop is yet seen and the prices paid for the medium and commoner grades remain at about the level seen at the opening of the market.

The first official report on the sales of leaf on the Danville tobacco market issued by John Bustard, secretary of the Danville Tobacco Association was given out last night, this showing that from Tuesday until Thursday night a total of 453,368 pounds was sold for $61,362.80 or at an average of $17.75 per hundred.

Warehousemen are looking for increased receipts during the coming week, it being usual for congestion to be noted during the week of the Danville fair. It is expected that the market will begin to strike its stride by about Tuesday when the better quality tobacco will be in charge.

Ed. Walton who has charge of the Co-Operative Marketing Association's affairs here is busy with his corps of assistants for the opening of the two delivery warehouses, at Producers and Farmers' business houses which will be open for business on Tuesday morning. The Association will begin activities for the season in the Old Belt on that day.

District Attorney Rowland said he was going ahead with his orders to continue the grand jury investigation. Plans of relative several of whom are beneficiaries of Mrs. Webb's estate of several million dollars, to appeal to Governor Smith for assistance in the contest have been postponed pending further action of the Westchester court.

Details of Goettler's report will not be made public until the grand jury has studied the statement at its meeting next Monday, authorities announced.

Most of the disclosures in the death case were described before the Westchester court yesterday by Mr. R. Johnston, friend of Mrs. Webb and Dr. Wm. J. Meyer, whose refusal to issue a death certificate led to the current investigation had been revealed in a statement made by the doctor last night.

The specimens of a trained nurse voiced while Mrs. Webb was dying, resulted in cross examination of Mrs. Webb and the revelation that she had taken blue tablets, which, she said, might have contained poison.

Mrs. Johnston and the nurse were in the room when Dr. Meyer began questioning the dying patient, he said.

Dr. Meyer told of giving Mrs. Webb a thorough re-examination and of taking her hand and saying: "Gentle you are dying and it is absolutely necessary for me to answer some very important questions about personal things. Will you?"

"The poor girl's fingers tightened on mine," the doctor continued. "For perhaps sixty seconds she rolled her eyes from Mrs. Johnston to me, then in a thin, weak voice said: 'Yes.'"

"She told me, in answer to a dozen questions, the meaning of which I had to explain in great detail, because of this child—woman's ignorance of certain things were almost incredible. From and less accurate than a patient on her death bed I would have stated to believe the things I heard."

In answer to questions, the doctor said, Mrs. Webb admitted she had taken an occasional hiccough or cocktail but she did not believe it possible for her to have put anything in those drinks without her knowing it.

"Try hard and see if you can remember any time, any place, any circumstance under which anything might have got to your system," the doctor once asked.

The doctor proceeded as related by the doctor proceeded.

"Margaret (Mrs. Johnston) knows," she whispered.

"What was said?" I asked her.

"Tablets," she replied.

"What color were they, Gentie?"

"Blue, I think," she answered.

The Meyer was asked if that was why he did not sign a death certificate.

"Certainly was and I think it was enough," he replied.

Four Justices Can Sit In Any Case, Supreme Court Hold

Four justices of the police may sit in future cases on appeal in Virginia and not a state statute covering judicial procedure, the Supreme Court of Virginia has just decided in the appeal of J. A. Wade of Halifax county who sued out three warrants against Lewis and Banks Oliver. The case was tried by Justice W. Woodard and three other justices of the peace who decided against Wade and taxed him with the costs. Wade then noted an appeal claiming that it was irregular for as many as four justices to sit in judgment on the case. The supreme court refused the writ of error in the case and the decision of the four justices will stand.

W. Howard Dickerson, who was taken seriously ill with pneumonia and died last Saturday, was covered by the police and three other justices of the peace who decided against Wade and taxed him with the costs. Wade then noted an appeal claiming that it was irregular for as many as four justices to sit in judgment on the case. The supreme court refused the writ of error in the case and the decision of the four justices will stand.

GYPSY SMITH TO HOLD SERVICES IN MAGIC CITY

Many in Danville will be interested in the announcement that Gypsy Smith, English evangelist well known and widely esteemed in this city, will begin a campaign in Roanoke on November 25th, continuing until December 10th.

Rodney Smith, his real name, has served as a chaplain in the British army in France since his first appearance in Danville and has done a great work among the soldiers and the young men of his native land. He is a bit older, but his effectiveness is said to have been notably increased since he conducted his revival here. Doubtless many from this city will go to Roanoke for week-ends during his campaign there.

The Roanoke World-News prints the following as to the evangelistic "drive" planned for that city:

Plans for the Gypsy Smith religious campaign to be held here at the City Auditorium from November 25 to December 10 inclusive, are practically completed, according to reports of the chairman of the various committees at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A.

The above date has been definitely decided on for the date of holding the campaign.

During the campaign there will be two meetings a day, one at noon at the Roanoke Theater and one in the evening at the City Auditorium. Contracts for the seats and the auditorium have been let. Arrangements are being made for the comfort of the people who will attend the meetings.

To Care For Infants

A nursery committee, will take care of the infants and small children of the parents attending the meetings. This committee will consist of six ladies from each of the churches. Rooms will be fitted up for the purpose of taking care of the babies. There will be toys, etc., for them to play with.

The evangelistic party will be made up of Gypsy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William McDuffan, sons and daughters, and W. D. Young, pianist. The evangelist closed a very successful meeting on last Sunday at Wichita, Kansas, it was said. He will next hold a meeting at St. Joseph, Mo. From there he will come here.

Waverly Cousins Re-elected Head American Legion

Waverly H. Cousins was re-elected post commander of Danville Post No. 10, American Legion, at a meeting of the post held last night at Memorial Mansion. Other officers elected were:

Commander: W. O. Hawkins, second vice commander: T. A. Fox, post adjutant: J. Landon Robertson, post treasurer: Rev. J. P. Jones, chaplain: Miss Claudia Lewis, historian: Executive committee—J. W. Quinn, H. A. Wiseman, Dan D. Dickson, A. J. Carleton, Jr., Hamilton Vass, Allen S. Clarke, and T. F. Gray.

There was an unusually large attendance at the meeting here last night and when the time came for the election of officers, the chief matter before the meeting, there was a noticeable stir among the members. The order of procedure was a report from the nominating committee. This was offered by T. A. Fox, but was not adopted at once as members wanted it made clear the nominations could be made from the floor. This had already been stated by members of the nominating committee, but had not been clearly understood. As soon as this was cleared up the report was adopted. This was followed by nominations from the floor.

The first officer elected was Mr. Cousins, whose majority was overwhelming.

The entertainment features of the program were especially noteworthy. There were piano selections by Miss Irwin, music teacher at Schoolfield, followed by solos by Basil Browder, accompanied by Miss Irwin. Then a quartet of former service men entertained the legionnaires with a number of songs.

Special maneuvers for Armistice Day were suggested by Captain Ashby K. Raine, of the Tank company, who stated that his outfit assisted by the Hospital company and the C. C. band, were planning to put on a battle maneuver and that it had been suggested that these maneuvers take place on Saturday, November 10, under the auspices of the American Legion. The post commander enthusiastically accepted the offer and the following committee of the Legion was named to act in concert with Capt. Raine: T. A. Fox, Jr., chairman, H. G. Clark and G. F. Edwards.

A report was made at the meeting of the successful organization of a Woman's Auxiliary to the Legion. It also was reported that the picture "The Man Without a Country," would be shown at the Broadway Theatre November 10, 12 and 13 under the auspices of the American Legion.

Rural Sociology At Va. University

UNIVERSITY, Va., Oct. 4.—Economic and social surveys of nine Virginia counties have been started by students in classes of rural sociology under Dr. Wilson Gee, who has recently come to the University of Virginia from the University of South Carolina to give the entire time to the study of problems in the rural parts of the Old Dominion.

When completed these surveys will be published in the extension series of the University and will be distributed all over the state. Since this work is just starting it will not be possible to complete more than three or four surveys during the session of 1934-35.

Sixteen students are engaged in this special work under Dr. Gee who has been careful to select men of special ability for this study. The men are investigating conditions in their home counties in all but a few cases.

Augusta county is being studied by C. M. Catlett, of Staunton; Campbell county by W. H. Coleman and Horace A. Teas, of Lynchburg; and M. C. Pones Jr., of Madison Heights; Fairfax by L. P. Nickell, of Herndon; and C. J. Randolph, of Theological Seminary, Hanover by E. C. Cooke, of Rockville, and G. M. Weems of Ashland, London by P. A. Deck, of L. March, of Greer, Pennsylvania by A. R. Carter, of Dry Fork and W. A. Yeatts, of Danville. Princess Anne by E. E. Ferebee, of Virginia Beach, and J. P. Wilson, Jr., of New York; and Hutchinson by J. S. Peters, of Harrisonburg, and W. F. Stinespring, of Dayton.

These surveys are to be similar to one made of Albemarle county during the summer quarter of 1933 when Dr. Gee and seven students studied the county in which the University is located. This has already been published by the university.

Each survey will include a short history of the county, a sketch of its natural resources, its industries, facts about its people, wealth and taxation, schools, agriculture, food and feed production, and the general relationship of rural to urban life. Evidence of progress will also be shown and each survey will conclude with a study of county problems.

SMITH WILL ATTEND PROHIBITION MEETING

(By The Associated Press.)

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 4.—Governor Smith, who approved repeal by the Legislature of the state prohibition enforcement act, announced today he would attend the conference of governors in Washington, October 20, called by President Coolidge to consider prohibition enforcement and other matters. Asked if he intended to speak he replied: "I am not going to Washington to look at the building."

SHELBY STARTS BACK ON ROAD TO NORMALCY

JIM JOHNSON, SHELBY'S MAYOR

(Special to The Bee)

SHELBY, Mont., Oct. 5.—So this is Shelby.

Such is the more than likely exclamation on the lips of countless tourists purposefully meandering through the now quite deserted streets of this little metropolis.

Shelby, which only a short time back basked in undiminished publicity as the training site and battleground of the now historic Dempsey-Gibbons fight, is getting back to normalcy.

But by no means has she lost her pluck.

True, her fling at pugilistic high finance about kayoed Shelby's money markets and made her the unexampled specimen of a Montana county seat without a bank.

But the morale of her populace who dropped lost gold into the championship arena and got nothing in return has by no means been weakened.

It was their loss that put Patricia Salmon on Broadway, Tom Gibbons on the Panhandle circuit and set Dempsey up a few notches higher on the lane of easy street.

But all of that is past history so far as Mayor Jim Johnson, who, because he loved the fight as a civic

Powell Store In Gretna Was Robbed Thurs.

GRETTA, Va., Oct. 4.—The dry goods and clothing store of the firm of B. R. Powell & Co. of this place was entered sometime Wednesday night of Thursday morning, Oct. 3rd, and a large amount of ladies' and men's clothing, shoes, piece goods and suitcases stolen. The loss so far as can be ascertained will amount to several hundred dollars. The thieves succeeded in gaining entrance by forcing the lock with a crow-bar or some similar instrument.

This marks the seventh time in three years that this firm has been robbed of goods and, in addition, in the Spring of 1932, they suffered a heavy fire loss. The fire believed to have been of incendiary origin B. R. Powell, head of the firm has had several characters, notorious violators of the law in other ways, under suspicion for some time and feels that in a short while there will be developments linking up some of the losses by burglary with the fire loss suffered somewhat over a year ago. All possible clues to both the cause of the fire and to the numerous burglaries have been followed up closely and he hopes that only a short time will elapse before something definite in the way of evidence can be laid before the officers.

The mayor and chief of police upon receiving notice of the burglary called at the firm's headquarters at about ten o'clock this morning and after a brief review of such a class as were offered were unable to give any solution to the case. It is understood they are bending every effort toward locating the thieves as the repeated robberies in the town especially of the B. R. Powell & Co. store without any apprehensions have given the town the name of "Burglar's Paradise."

DAUGHTERS HAVE SOCIAL EVENING

The Daughters of Pocahontas, the feminine adjunct of the Improved Order of Red Men and with which many of the male members of the latter order are actively affiliated had an enjoyable social evening at the hall on North Main street last night. Refreshments were served during the evening, and an enjoyable social hour was had by the large number of members. Excellent short addresses were made by Dr. G. W. Johnson and Rev. O. A. Gunn. Those having charge of the program were anxious to have all the program well attended to all the guests each member being privileged to bring a gentleman friend and his wife.

Interest in the organization is now at a high mark, just as the meetings and social evenings are occasions of particular interest to members and their friends.

SCOTT COUNTY JAIL IN A BAD CONDITION

RECEPTION AT AVERETT COLLEGE

A faculty reception was given at Averett College last night which was attended and enjoyed by a large number of callers. The occasion was one at which President Craft had an opportunity of presenting the new members of the faculty of Averett and of greeting those who are returning to resume their efficient work with the school. The college building was in splendor and the condition for the reception of the company, and the president, trustees and older members of the faculty were hosts. Altogether the occasion was an enjoyable one socially and one which many present would be glad to see repeated during the session.

DEPUTY CACHIN GETS SENTENCE

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Deputy Marcel Cachin, leader of the communist party in France, was sentenced today to six months in jail and a fine of 2,000 francs on a charge of inciting soldiers to disobedience. The charge, which has been pending against the deputy for fifteen months, was moved for trial during his recent absence in Moscow. Hearing that it was to be brought to trial, M. Cachin hurried back to Paris.

Valiant Counturier, another communist deputy, received a similar sentence. Both men asserted that they would take the case to the higher courts.

The funeral will be held at Drakes Branch today.

WOMEN SHOULD ACT QUICKLY

When a woman finds herself afflicted with backache, headaches, nervousness, dragging-down pains, pain in her side, irregularities and irritability, dark circles appear under the eyes and her complexion gets sallow, she may be sure the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to her sex. Such women should act quickly and take the great American remedy for such conditions, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and they may be saved years of suffering. For general medicine has been restoring ailing women to health, and it may be relied upon with perfect confidence.

ROANOKE SCHOOLS HAVE ENROLLMENT OF 12,000

ROANOKE, Oct. 4.—The enrollment reports of the public schools principals for the month of September, when compiled yesterday in the office of Superintendent D. E. McQuilkin, showed that approximately 12,000 pupils were in the schools, a little more than 5 per cent more than the number at the end of September, 1933.

The white pupils number 9,222, the colored 2,159, making a total of 11,381. As the enrollment is not complete, and especially as pupils enroll off and on in the winter evening school for several months, it is certain that the number for the session will go considerably higher than 12,000. For the month of September last year it was 11,089.

Senator Copeland Is Armistice Day Speaker in the City

Senator Royal S. Copeland, of New York, will be the Armistice Day speaker in Danville on November 11. It was announced last night at the American Legion meeting. The letter of acceptance was received by Dr. G. W. Johnson, chairman of the committee to secure a speaker, and stated that unless something unforeseen arose he would be here to address the Danville post, American Legion, on the date of the annual celebration.

Senator Copeland, who is also a physician, was former health commissioner of New York City, and it was on the record that he made in administering that office that he was nominated and elected senator by the Democrats of the Empire state. He is known primarily as a man of action, but he is also an able speaker and the American Legion is to be congratulated on getting such a figure to address the membership.

He has been mentioned prominently as a Democratic possibility for the presidential nomination, and certainly the Democrats of New York have not had for a long while so able a man to represent them in the United States Senate.

This committee in charge of Armistice Day celebration is planning a program of unusual interest and announcement of these plans will be made as the day draws near.

Senator Copeland is a personal friend of Dr. Johnson and it was largely through his efforts that the former Health Commissioner of New York was secured as Armistice Day speaker.

The letter of acceptance to Dr. Johnson follows:

250 West 57th Street,
New York City,
August 20th, 1923.

My dear Dr. Johnson:
I have received your letter of August 17th, and wish to thank you very kindly for your invitation to be the speaker at your gathering on Armistice Day.

I should like very much to go and shall take this matter up seriously about October 1st, when I shall give you a definite reply. It is a pity that nothing unforeseen happens it will give me great pleasure to accept your kind invitation.

Again thanking you, I am,
Cordially,
ROYAL S. COPELAND.

In connection with the Armistice Day celebration Captain Ashby K. Raine, of the Tank company, last night offered to put on special maneuvers under the auspices of the Legion on Saturday, November 10. These maneuvers will be participated in by the Tank company, the Hospital company and the Coast Artillery band. Captain Raine proposes to put on realistic field maneuvers, a sort of mimic outline of the battle work of a tank company.

C. T. S. Meets Lynchburg Eleven In Tilt Saturday

(Special to The Bee)

CHATHAM, Va., Oct. 5.—The Chatham Training School football eleven will meet the strong Lynchburg High here tomorrow afternoon in the first regularly scheduled game of the season for C. T. S. The game is attracting much interest as the rivalry between the two schools athletically has always been heated.

The visiting squad promises to be up to or above its usual high level, as was evidenced by their 19 to 0 defeat of the Alta Vista High last Saturday. Coaches Towill and Threlkeld, of C. T. S. are not predicting a victory for their outfit, but they have been pushing their charges through some hard drills and scrimmages during the week in preparation for the contest and C. T. S. eleven in the pink of condition is assured their supporters. The probable line-up Coach Towill will use in the opening game is: Christman, left guard; Daniels, left tackle; Camden, left guard; Curnby, center; Cox, right guard; Hamilton, right tackle; Wilson, right end; Hutchins, Quarter; Mattax, captain, left half; Ornelia, right half and Reynolds full back.

The schedule for C. T. S. for the 1923 season so far as arranged is:

October 6—Lynchburg High School, at Chatham.
October 13—Roanoke College Junior Varsity, at Chatham.
October 20—Fork Union Military Academy at Chatham.
October 27—W. and L. Freshmen, at Chatham.
November 3—D. M. I. at Chatham.
November 10—Blackstone at Blackstone.
November 17—Randolph-Macon Military Academy, Bedford City, at Chatham.
November 24—Danville High at Chatham (pending).

Negro Sentenced In Norfolk For Combined Acts

(By The Associated Press)

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 5.—James Howe, driver of a government mail truck, was sentenced to five days in jail, fined $50 and cost and his driver's license ordered suspended for one year when he was tried in police court today. An additional charge of driving without lights netted a fine of $50. Howe was arrested by a traffic officer who first noticed Howe when the truck he was driving zigzagged. Absence of lights on the truck caused a questioning by the policeman.

Howe is alleged to have cursed the officer and ordered him to take his hands off the truck, as it was government property. While waiting for a police patrol wagon to arrive, the policeman testified, Howe made a motion toward his hip and started to pull a .45-calibre pistol. The policeman crashed his fist into the negro's face and then disarmed him.

Reception at Averett College

The Reception which was given at Averett College yesterday evening in honor of the teachers of the school was attended by a large number of people. The hall and drawing room were decorated in all the glowing fall colors, red predominating everywhere except in the music room where yellow roses and amber shaded lights were used.

The guests were received at the door by a bevy of young girls of the school, among the number being Misses Lillian Nevitt, Virginia White, Elizabeth de Jarrette, Catherine Lohr, Charming Clark, and Aletia Holmes. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Craft received in the main drawing room where all those who called during the evening were introduced to the new members of the faculty and had an opportunity to greet those who are already well known in the community. Those receiving with Dr. and Mrs. Craft were Misses Lois Coffey, Frances Shumate, Salome Bailey, May Thompson, Gracie Price, Flossie Adams, Helen Cannon, Susie Turner, Susie Wood, Elizabeth Vortz, Raine Jackson, Hamilton, Root, and Mrs. Nancy Raikes. Mrs. Mary Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Putnam.

Music was furnished during the evening by Westbrook's orchestra, composed of John Westbrook, William Geoghegan, Thomas Carter, Caleb Richmond, Howard Hyton and Basil Browder.

An ice-course was served during the evening as the guests in informal fashion engaged in pleasant conversation.

Among the callers were trustees of the school who assisted in entertaining: Col. and Mrs. J. R. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. Malcolm S. Taylor, Dr. and Mrs. James M. Shelburne, Miss Lizzie Lowndes, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Tate, Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chism, Joseph R. Anderson, Mrs. George Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Griggs, William Walter, Ernest Marchand, Richard Day, William Moorehead and many others. The occasion was a most enjoyable one throughout.

OSAKA IS AROUSED

BY TOKIO DEMANDS

OSAKA, Oct. 4.—The people of Osaka are highly indignant at reports from Tokio that the municipal assembly there at an executive session decided that Osaka fire insurance representatives will not be allowed to return home until they agree to pay insurance losses. Seventeen such delegates in Tokio are apprehensive and secured a pledge before leaving for Tokio that the safety of their persons and lives would be guaranteed. The Yokohama assembly is reported to be acting in concert with Tokio.

This promises to bring to a head the long existing rivalry between the two cities, to the extent that it will refuse further to aid the earthquake sufferers. Osaka merchants and bankers suffered severely during the moratorium having to meet their own bills and being unable to collect from their Tokio debtors.

V. M. I. TEAM EN ROUTE TO ATLANTA

(By The Associated Press.)
ROANOKE, Va., Oct. 4.—The Virginia Military Institute team, passing through the city today on their way to Atlanta where they will meet the Georgia Tech eleven on Saturday afternoon. The squad was composed of players.

The squad arrived from Lexington shortly after 4 o'clock and went immediately to supper. Following supper the squad was sent through some limbering up exercises on the hotel grounds.

Negress Held On Highway Robbery Charge; Round-Up of Street Walkers

Belle White, a negress arrested last night on complaint of Richard Dobbs, a white man, who claimed that the woman, with two others held and robbed him of his purse containing $1.46, was this morning arraigned in the police court and her case was sent to the grand jury. Although Dobbs was positive in his identification of the negress, she denied that she had ever seen the man. The woman was arrested by Police Officer W. S. Edwards and had been identified to him. The latter readily identified her as the woman who took his purse from his pocket while the others held him. The highway hold-up took place about seven o'clock on Loyal street at a point between Craighead and Lynn streets.

Dobbs testified this morning that he had started to the "tobacco factory" on the corner of Lynn and Loyal streets. It has been learned that he was returning to the Piedmont warehouse. He said that he was met by three negro women and that one of them grabbed him and said "We want your money." Dobbs said he replied that he had no money but that after searching one pocket the woman who he later identified as Belle White, reached into his hip pocket and pulled out his pocket-book. He testified that he trailed the woman into a restaurant, the other two having fled. He said he demanded of her to give him back his money and she denied having it. Dobbs stated

Princess Left

Thirty Million

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A will disposing of the estimated $30,000,000 fortune left by Princess Anastasia of Greece, who died in London last August 29 and was buried here, was filed today.

The woman who was known on two continents as "the million dollar princess" and "widow of the tin-plate king" described herself in the will as "born Nonnie Stewart and widow of William B. Leeds."

Minor bequests are made to her son, Wm. B. Leeds, Jr., and his wife, Princess Xenia, of Russia, and to a niece, Nancy Stewart Green. The residue of the estate was left in trust, the income to be divided equally by Prince Christopher, husband of Princess Anastasia, and Margaret Stewart Green, of Montclair, N. J., a sister.

TOBACCO NEWS

MOUNT AIRY TOBACCO MARKET IS NOW OPEN

MOUNT AIRY, Oct. 4.—The tobacco market opened here Wednesday with large breaks at both the auction warehouses.

The farmers seem to feel that the prices are even lower than the grade prices, though it is hoped that the prices will improve as the first primings are sold off and the best of the season begins to come in.

BETTER TOBACCO PRICES ON HENDERSON MARKET

HENDERSON, Oct. 5.—Prices are gradually and steadily rising on the Henderson tobacco market. The improvement having been generally noticed in the sale of the first three days of the present week. Monday's sales showed an average of $18.50 per hundred pounds, and today one warehouse reported an average above the 20c level. Continued improvement in the quality of the tobacco is said to be responsible for the increased averages, and if the present rate is continued prices will go beyond the 20c level in the next few days.

YOUNG GIRL WHO MADE HER ESCAPE RECAPTURED

(By The Associated Press.)
HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 4.—Nineteen year old Lillian Massey, convicted bootlegger who made a federal escape from a deputy United States marshal here last Friday, has been arrested in Columbus, Ohio, federal authorities were notified today.

She escaped shortly after she had been sentenced to serve two years in a federal reformatory at Leeds, Mo. The deputy accompanied the girl to a hotel to obtain her clothing. She eluded the officer, slid down a drain pipe and disappeared.

CHARTER REVISIONISTS DISCUSS SOME CHANGES

The charter revision commission held another meeting last night in the council chamber with five members present. William P. Boatwright, chairman, was absent and the meeting was presided over by Eugene H. Marshall, vice-chairman of the commission.

Last night's session lasted about an hour and a half the time being consumed by the reading of the rest of the charter beginning at the point of discussion of some of the provisions of the previous charter. That chapter dealing with methods of taxation was passed by last night owing to the fact that the revenue is sought commissioner of the revenue is sought at the time this important section is taken up. The commission hopes to receive a number of suggestions from W. Pryor Ragland at that time.

At the next meeting of the commission persons who have suggestions to make and those who have already made any will be asked to be present in order that they may be given an opportunity to amplify their views. The identity of those who have made suggestions thus far to the commissioners is a compendium of the proposed amendments being presented to the commissioners.

Towards the close of last night's meeting the commissioners went into a brief executive session during which a frank discussion over mayoral duties was engaged in by several of the members. This was the first development of its kind since the commission began its public sessions. The discussion was brought about by consideration of Chapter X of the charter which relates to the method of appointing the members of the police commission.

There is already on record a suggestion that the present method of appointing the police commissioners be changed and discussions last night on this particular phase of city government embraced the question of councilmanic control of the police force. There was discussion on this matter.

After a motion had been adopted dispensing with the minutes of the last meeting, Commissioner Holland asked if public hearings would be had on the charter before it is presented for ratification. He was informed that when the rough draft of the completed instrument has been prepared there will be a public meeting in order that the public may be heard from.

Commissioner Walton Brown took up the task of reading the charter. As the reading progressed there were suggestions for clarification of language. Chapter VIII of the charter which reposes certain rights in the council to issue bonds created considerable discussion. It was brought out that it has never been made entirely clear if the issuance of bonds on revenue producing utilities applied to the entire city, water, gas or electric light, or if the council has the right to issue bonds up to $100,000 for each separate utility. This will come up for a definite decision at some future date with a suggestion already pending that the council be allowed to issue bonds up to $200,000 or twice the amount now allowed by the charter.

An amendment to section 1 of chapter IX offered last night provides inclusion in the charter of a clause imposing penalties for the non-payment of taxes also the keeping of a list of delinquent taxes at the office of the clerk of the court.

The city attorney also suggested that it would be wise to include in the city charter the municipal finance act which he said he understood is to be presented for adoption. A session of the Virginia legislature, the collection of electric light and gas accounts was suggested for inclusion in the charter though this point is adequately covered in the city ordinances.

Chapter X dealing with the method of appointing the police commission had reached the stage of discussion as to the advisability of a committee on public safety being added to the roster of council committees to handle the hold police question in Danville. When the session became executive and during which the discussion of police and mayoral duties had full play.

45 Additions At Keen Street Church

The revival being conducted by Rev. H. W. Connelly at Keen Street Baptist church, Rev. Jesse R. Hite, pastor will close with the services Saturday evening. Regular services will be held Sunday. The subject of Rev. Mr. Connelly's sermon this evening will be "The End of the Harvest." The song service will be in charge of C. M. Robertson.

There have been 45 additions to the church since the services began Thursday, September 27. Following the service this evening the ordinance of baptism will be administered.

USE INTELLIGENCE TESTS UPON FRESHMEN AT W. & L.

LEXINGTON, Oct. 4.—Intelligence tests for all men entering Washington and Lee will become an established custom, according to announcement made by President Henry Louis Smith, if a series of intelligence tests the Freshman class proves practicable. The test to the freshmen was applied under the supervision of Professor William M. Brown of the department of education.

While intelligence tests are given by many universities and colleges as part of entrance requirements, Washington and Lee does not intend to make them an entrance requirement. Results of the tests, however, will be classified and used as information for the dean and the faculty.

Charges Suit On Clarke Is Only To Discredit Him

(By The Associated Press.)
ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 4.—Charges that the suit of Mrs. Helen Katherine Steele filed here yesterday, in which she asks $100,000 damages from E. V. Clarke, are declared by Sidney Smith, attorney for Mr. Clarke, in a statement made public today, to be "just another of the efforts that have been made over a period of nearly two years to discredit" Mr. Clarke. The statement issued following publication of the story of the filing of the suit asserts that all of the charges made in the petition are false.

Mrs. Steele, in her petition, alleges that Mr. Clarke, who formerly was head of the propagation department of the Ku Klux Klan, posed as an unmarried man and promised to marry her when his business affairs would permit. She says she knew him as Ralph Clarke.

AVIATORS ARE BAILED

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Arthur England, an aviator, and Randolph Beck were held in $3,000 bail each today in Jamaica court on a charge of stealing a seaplane owned by John J. Walsh, of Brooklyn, and moored in Jamaica bay.

The police charged their prisoners flew the machine to Long Beach, and intended flying to Miami, Florida.

General Butler Expects To Resign

(By The Associated Press.)

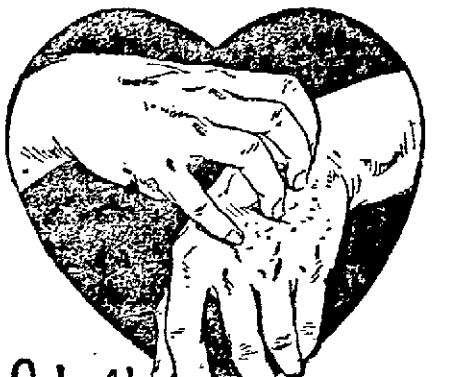

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Brigadier General Smedley D. Butler, of the U. S. Marine Corps, is expected to resign his commission within the next few days to accept a post with a Detroit manufacturing concern. Friends of General Butler said last night that his march into Washington today with the marines who have been engaged in maneuvers in Virginia would be his last public appearance as a commander in the corps.

General Butler, who is the holder of two congressional medals of honor and many other decorations, enlisted in the marine corps at the age of 17 years. He was commended for gallantry in the Boxer campaign, and in addition he served with distinction in fourteen other campaigns and expeditions. Recently he had been in command of the marine station at Quantico, Va.

The work of General Butler at Pontauxen barracks, Brest, is perhaps best known to the present generation. He was selected by General Pershing to take charge of that great port during the world war and was credited with making a model camp there under the greatest difficulty.

—Miss Olive Ferrell of Ruffin was one of the out-of-town visitors yesterday.

—Mr. Willie Taylor and Mrs. Sam Adams and daughter, of Swansville, were in town yesterday.

McTigue and Referee Reach Atlanta Under Guard from Columbus

(By The Associated Press.) ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 5.—Guarded by four military policemen from Camp Benning, Mike McTigue, world's light heavyweight champion; his manager, Joe Jacobs, and Harry Ertle, of Jersey City, arrived here at 3 o'clock this morning from Columbus. They came through in two automobiles.

The party left Columbus secretly several hours after McTigue had fought Young Stribling of Macon, to draw before a court that, after proving of the decision of Referee Ertle, stormed the ring and threatened the referee until Stribling's hand was raised, indicating that he had been awarded the bout.

Ertle declared on his arrival here at no time did he ever change his decision that the fight between McTigue and Stribling was a draw.

"It was the worst situation I ever was in," he said in a statement given a representative of The Associated Press. "They kept me in that ring for fully a half hour trying to make me change my decision. I said that it was a draw when the fight ended and I said it was a draw when they threatened me and I still say it was a draw."

He declared he believed he was giving Stribling what was coming to him when he called the fight a draw. The referee said he was threatened within a short time after he arrived in Columbus at 12:30 o'clock yesterday. "My train was delayed sixteen hours and I did not know until I reached Columbus that McTigue and Jacobs had called off the fight the night before," he said.

Ertle was bitter against Major J. Paul Jones, head of the American Legion committee that promoted the fight. "The minute I hit town he tried to bully me," said the referee. "He said 'now you are in town you can't get out.' I said 'what's the idea, are you trying to bully or browbeat some people?' He said: 'We've got all the railroad stations covered.'"

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchitis, asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—adv.

MILL VICTIM'S REMAINS SENT TO ATLANTA, GA.

The body of William C. Brittingham, Dan River Mills employee and member of the Senate of the Schoolfield Industrial Democracy, who met tragic death early yesterday afternoon in a cotton baler, was placed on Southern Train No. 29 last night and sent to Atlanta, Ga., where interment will take place. Accompanying the body was Mrs. Brittingham and her five small children also Miss Eva Bush, welfare department nurse at Schoolfield and who was designated by company officials to accompany the body to its final resting place.

Mr. Brittingham was 34 years of age and was a native of Columbus, Ga. He had been employed a year at the Dan River Mills as foreman of the cotton weighing department, having been recently promoted to that position from the post of assistant, thereby automatically becoming a member of the upper branch of the plant government.

The unfortunate man met death so swiftly and unexpectedly that it is probably true that he did not know what killed him. He had gone into an adjoining department where the cotton balers are located—these not far from the cotton storage warehouse against the wall. He was arrested by two or three witnesses to be looking into one of the electrically operated power presses which crush raw cotton into compact bales. It apparently did not occur to those who saw him that he was unfamiliar with the mechanism. He was seen to lose some cotton into the baler and as he did it, by some means, managed to touch the lever which starts the mechanism and the top of the cotton press caught his shoulders from behind as he was peering into the baler.

Magistrate R. S. ... discovered that he was already dead. He went to the spot and after hearing the stories of two or three employees before whose eyes the tragedy was swiftly enacted, he decided that there was nothing suspicious or mysterious about the man's death that an inquest was not necessary.

Examination of the body later disclosed that terrible injuries had been sustained. His spinal cord was ruptured at the neck, his breast bone was splintered and most of his upper ribs had been reduced to fragments. Even his clothing had been compressed into the flesh under the terrific weight of the blow.

Mr. Brittingham who had made many friends at Schoolfield especially on Bishop avenue where he resided, was insured for $1,000 under the group insurance policy carried by the textile corporation.

Good Morning Judge!

That in the middle of the street is no place to stop, prepare a meal for his horse and permit the animal to leisurely consume the rations, was learned yesterday by William Carrington, colored, when he was arrested by Police Officer W. B. Foster on a charge of committing a nuisance by stopping in the street and feeding his horse. However, the negro was this morning given a warning not to do it again and the warrant against him was dismissed.

Yesterday morning both sides of Loyal street were lined with farmers' wagons and Carrington could find no place to stop his horse and wagon. He just took it into himself to stop right where he was in the middle of the street and feed his horse. Along came Police Officer Foster and saw that the negro was blocking traffic, or rather causing those who passed some little inconvenience in squeezing by the wagon which was cross-wise of the street. Carrington pleaded ignorance but a warrant was brought.

Warrants charging John D. Thomas with driving an automobile while intoxicated and with violating the Mapp act were disposed of this morning. Thomas submitted to the charges and drew a fine of $101 and costs for driving the machine in an intoxicated state and $51 and costs for having a small quantity of whiskey in his possession. The warrant charging him with assault on Ada Lettich, colored, was not disposed of, as the woman was not present to testify. It was stated that she had about recovered from her injuries and counsel for Thomas sought to have the warrant dismissed on the grounds that it had been made "alright with the woman" who merely wanted compensation for being run down. The court announced that it was not its policy to dismiss such warrants unless the person injured appeared in court and announced that no prosecution was sought or sent a written affidavit to this effect. Therefore the assault case was continued.

A difficulty which occurred between Lester Overton and G. P. Pryor recently was aired by the court. Overton charged Pryor with carrying a concealed weapon and with trying to use it on him after he had approached Pryor and demanded of him to pay some money on a bill which he owed. It feeling has existed between the two men since a recent hearing in court of a charge by Overton that Pryor embezzled funds of the laundry company of which Overton was proprietor. Overton charged he failed to turn in money collected on his route. Overton testified that he met Pryor and asked him about the money, inquiring if he could not pay a little each week. He stated that Pryor said he would not pay a cent and suddenly reached into his pocket with his right hand to procure a pistol. He said he knocked Pryor down and that he got the weapon out of his pocket with his left hand. Overton stated that he wrenched the weapon from him and threw it into the street.

Pryor stated that it was he who threw the gun into the street, as he did not want to use it and throw it out of the way so that Overton could not use it on him. He charged that he had been a victim of frame-ups and lies on the former trial. Pryor was fined $25 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon.

Ike Gosney, colored, was fined $1 and costs for not having a permit to drive an automobile. Ike evidently thought he had committed some harsh crime for he leaned over the secretary's desk and in a soft tone practically demanded that no mention be made of the case in the paper, going so far as to offer to "pay for it."

Walter Watkins was assessed $21 and costs for fast and reckless driving. Willard Coates also drew a $1 and costs fine for exceeding the speed limit.

ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The Atlantic and Pacific stores in Danville are this week observing the 64th anniversary of the chain of stores which are widely established in this country. Special reductions on a number of staple commodities are offered during the sale to the housewives of Danville and the surrounding section. The firm was first organized in 1859 and has been steadily increasing in size until today there are 8,500 branch stores of the organization in all sections of the country. The roster of employees shows 32,500. To supply these retail centres the concern maintains and operates 21 warehouses for raw products, ten bakeries, 4 canneries, and fifteen other manufacturing plants. The annual sales of flour at these stores total 225,000,000 pounds or sufficient to make six billion biscuits.

(By The Associated Press.) FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 4.—The Fort Worth, Texas League team won its third Dixie championship here this afternoon by defeating the New Orleans, Southern Association champions, 7 to 1.

Ask Death Penalty In Wagner Trial

(By The Associated Press.) PADUCAH, Ky., Oct. 5.—Trial of Mrs. Henriette Wagner, 60, on an indictment charging murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Rosetta Warren and her unborn child, when the Warren home was wrecked by a dynamite blast here last April, was under way in the McCracken circuit court today. Members of the jury, drawn from an adjoining county, were told by County Attorney F. E. Graves, in a preliminary statement yesterday that the death penalty was to be asked for the dynamite murderer. Mrs. Wagner who had pleaded not guilty to the indictment faintly following Attorney Graves preliminary statement.

Alfred Warren, 37, husband of the slain woman, first witness called to the stand, testified the defendant who had raised him, had opposed his marriage and had told him continually during the time he made his home with the Wagner family that she loved him. He insisted that his status in the Wagner home was only that of an adopted child. Mrs. Emma Skillian, alleged by the state to have been an accomplice of Mrs. Wagner and also charged in an indictment with murder, is to be tried later.

The Schoolfield band, under the leadership of Prof. J. Vezzetti, will render its regular weekly concert this evening at 7:15 at the new bandstand in Schoolfield. One of the latest pieces, "Kiss Me In The Dark," will feature the program.

BARGAIN SALE
MERRY AFFAIR

(By The Chicago Tribune.)
PARIS, Oct. 3.—A disastrous bargain sale in the great department store, Bon Marche, today resulted in the trampling of more than fifty women and children in the crowd, which held up all the traffic in the center of the Latin quarter. Police reinforcements were called out shortly before noon when the crowd became dangerous. The excitement was caused by the opening of a new wing in the store with a large number of articles being given away and others at low prices.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo, Clean, Penetrating, Antiseptic Liquid

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with Eczema, Blotches, Ringworm, Rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. Get it today and save all further distress. Zemo Soap, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c.

New Lamp Burns
94% Air

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up or simple, clean safe. Burns 94 per cent. air and 6 per cent. common kerosene (coal oil). The inventor, O. S. Johnson, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without expense or money make $250 to $500 per month—adv.

Free to Asthma and Hay Fever Sufferers

Free Trial of a Method that Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time

We have a method for the control of asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development, whether it is present as Chronic Asthma or Hay Fever, you should send for a free trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with asthma or hay fever, our method should relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, douches, opium preparations, fumes, "patent smokes," etc. have failed. We want to show everyone at our expense that our method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and begin the method at once. Send no money. Simply mail coupon below. Do it today—you even do not pay postage.

WOMAN'S HAIR
GROWS 8½ INCHES

Tells How Queen Hair Dressing Made It Smooth and Silky.

Faith E. Jones' hair was only four inches long when she began to use Queen Hair Dressing. Now read what she says: "My hair was short and coming out by the roots and breaking. It was itchy and itched when I began using Queen's and now it is 12½ inches long and smooth and silky. I should tell all my friends about your wonderful hair growing. I would be glad to be without the Queen Hair Dressing."

Queen Hair Dressing will make your hair long and straight, too. Sold everywhere, or send for a big box. Be sure you pay me my big money and give me beautiful testimonials to tell our goods are good. Write for full particulars. Address: New York, N. Y., 100 N. 4th St., New York, N. Y.

A SOLEMN BODY IN A MOMENT OF REPOSE

When one enters the chamber of the U. S. Supreme Court in the Capitol, he will not find the members in such a 'smiling' state of mind. The court convened for the season recently, and this photo shows members coming from the White House where they paid their respects to President Coolidge. Chief Justice Taft seems very happy about something.

AMBASSADORS CHILD AND HARVEY HAVE RESIGNED;
PRIVATE REASONS GIVEN

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The resignation of Ambassadors Harvey at London and Child at Rome, submitted for private reasons, and under administration have been accepted, marking the first big change in the American diplomatic service since President Coolidge took office.

Ambassador Harvey will quit his post about the first of the year. Ambassador Child, who has either left or is about to leave Rome for the United States, will not go back. None of the other American ambassadors or ministers the state department said in making the announcement, has any similar agreement limiting his term of service as far as known.

The only explanation of the two resignations given in official quarters was that in both cases the ambassadors had a few months ago reached agreements with President Harding as to the length of time they could continue at their posts. Whether they have deferred their retirement because of President Harding's death until President Coolidge should feel that they could be spared was not disclosed. In both cases there have been intimations, however, that the ambassadors were finding their positions unduly burdensome in a financial way and that they felt they must give attention to their personal affairs. When Ambassador Harvey was last in the United States on a somewhat prolonged leave, it was reported he would resign and take an active part in the coming presidential campaign. His resignation was announced today. The state department officials today limited their announcement to the statement that Mr. Harvey was about to retire and would do so in accordance with his understanding with President Harding.

There was no official word available tonight as to successors. Available sources might send to fill the posts. At the state department it was not admitted that no step had yet been taken to sound the two governments as to suitability as to possible appointments.

Both of the retiring ambassadors played important parts in the campaign which resulted in the election of President Harding, and since entering upon their diplomatic duties they have been prominent figures in negotiations having to do with post-war developments. They have functioned at times as American premiers in dealing with peace treaty matters.

The outstanding incident of British-American relations during the period of Ambassador Harvey's duties in London was the conclusion of the British debt negotiations. When the exchanges reached their final stage and Premier Baldwin, then chancellor, was in the United States with the British commission to work out details of an agreement, Mr. Harvey was called home to aid in bringing the refunding to a successful conclusion.

At present questions regarding liquor smuggling and the status of ship stores of liquor on American waters are among subjects before the British imperial conference, now in session in London. The British government recently notified Secretary Hughes that his proposals for a treaty agreement to cover these subjects, while not entirely favorable from a financial point of view, would be laid before the council of representatives of the British self-governing colonies.

Ambassador Harvey is known to have been fully with Ambassador Child in the latter's last visit to the White House. It appeared possible that the two might be reappointed to their posts until the end of the year.

HULTS ELECTED
Head of Virginia Manufacturers

(By The Associated Press.)

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 4.—E. A. Hults, of Saltville, was elected president of the Virginia Manufacturers' Association here today in the one-day session of the organization. Homer L. Ferguson, president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company, James A. Emery, general counsel of the National Manufacturers' Association, delivered addresses. H. L. Campbell, Lynchburg, and C. F. Burroughs, Norfolk, were chosen vice presidents. Selection of the next place of meeting was left to the board of directors.

The manufacturers were the guests at a banquet given in their honor tonight.

Speaking on the labor situation at this afternoon's session, Mr. Ferguson voiced emphatic protest against what he termed "interference by outside influences" in the state's labor conditions. The government, he asserted, had "made a mess of it during the war when it endeavored to throw its influence into the hands of no labor differences in various of Samuel Gompers—even when there plants." He referred especially to the Newport News shipyards.

"We have never been able to discuss our troubles among ourselves without outside influences," said the speaker, "and we have always reached amicable settlements. If the issue is placed frankly before the parties interested, an understanding is usually reached without difficulty."

Industrial interests cannot succeed on a fixed eight-hour basis, according to Mr. Ferguson, who added that "piece work or payment for earnings, was far more profitable to the workman than the per day or hourly wage."

Mr. Ferguson expressed the belief that the immigration laws might be somewhat amended with profit to Virginia by reducing the restrictions. Scarcity of labor in the north, he declared, is depriving southern labor markets to the disadvantage of the south.

Mr. Emery, following Mr. Ferguson, agreed with the latter's expressed views regarding the immigration laws. He spoke on "too much law." "National and State laws reach upon each other," said Mr. Emery. "Business has no State board and looks naturally to the national laws. There is more legislation enacted in all the states of Europe. We are deluged with laws. The annual crop is about 14,000. Every new man makes a violation of some statute, enactment or ordinance."

Mr. Emery also made mention of legislation resulting in much expense and the expense must be met by companies.

Planning the efforts being made to control the powers of the court, Mr. Emery asserted that "social life depends upon a court through the administration of laws through established courts, and added:

Luray now dead, and the late P. B. Stebbins, a native of Cecil county, Md., who at that time was living in this place. The men lost the cave in a suit that soon followed its discovery. S. A. Buracker, who was the owner of the land upon which the Campbells and Stebbins had made the find, brought suit for its recovery after three men had bought it at a sale for delinquent taxes. Mr. Campbell was a son of the late William Campbell, for many years sheriff of Page county, and a number of years was a deputy sheriff. He also was a member of the Kenton, Ohio, police force for a number of years.

FIFTY CASES SET FOR ROANOKE'S CITY COURT

ROANOKE, Oct. 4.—Around fifty cases were set for hearing at the calling of the October docket in corporation court this morning, among them being two cases of alleged murder. Numerous continuances were granted and a number of cases passed.

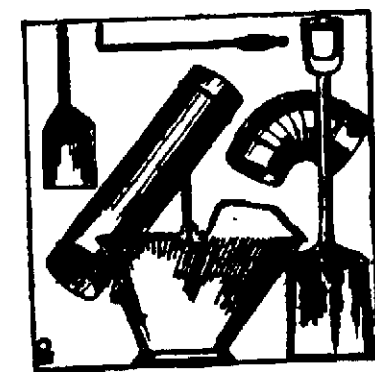

The appeal case of Clara Hartman and Lara M. Hartman was dismissed from the docket. No proceedings were entered in the case of James Wright, charged with forgery, and of A. J. Dudley, charged with desertion and non-support. The verdict of the jury was set aside in the case of S. L. Jarrett, charged with frequenting a house of ill fame, and the defendant was dismissed. The verdict was also set aside in the matter of Mrs. John Evans, alleged inmate of a disorderly house. She was dismissed.

Judge Hart refused to overrule the verdict in A. B. Anderson's case. The court said he thought Anderson ought to be straightened out. Counsel marked that he had just been up one previous time for violating the prohibition law. "That was the first time they caught him," Judge Hart commented. "Anderson has a good face and I am sorry to see him taking the wrong path." Counsel asked for a suspended sentence and this was refused. Anderson furnished bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance in December. It was indicated he would seek an appeal.

Military Rule In Oklahoma Holds Sway in Name Only

(By The Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 4.—With the court battle between Governor J. C. Walton and members of the Oklahoma house of representatives halted until next Tuesday, citizens whose attention has been fastened on the spectacular contest between the executive and legislative branches of the state government tonight turned to matters that had been forced into the background. Martial law under which they have lived for nearly 3 weeks has become military rule virtually in name only.

In Oklahoma City the military court that was convened to investigate alleged lawlessness of the Ku Klux Klan has been disbanded and military forces have been removed. Military headquarters have been abandoned, and persons appearing on the streets after midnight no longer need passes. There are no patrols to challenge the late wayfarers. Likewise in Tulsa, the sole remaining activity of the military is the court of inquiry. This still is in session, but no authoritative quarters, it is declared that less than a dozen troopers now are on duty in Tulsa.

Although Governor Walton declined today to reveal his plans, followers of the situation inclined to believe that the military regime rapidly is drawing to a close.

It is known that the executive has been preparing himself for the supreme contest of his political career. Pointing to the executive's statement last night referring to the December 6 to resubmit a constitutional amendment empowering the legislature to convene at its own call as an impeachment body in which he declared in the next two months "will be fought the most historic battle in history," observers tonight prophesied that the entire removal of martial law would be one of the governor's first moves to increase his political strength.

Governor Walton himself gave basis for this conjecture when he declared that no cases of mob violence in the state had been reported for 2 weeks, indicating, he believed, the situation well in hand.

Today Aldrich Black, the executive's counselor announced that plans already are under way to enroll Walton supporters and anti-Ku Klux Klan voters in a definite organization.

The executive counselor added that he is considering a "mob victims" convention as a feature of the anti-Klan campaign the governor intends to wage.

The court proceedings were postponed today on agreement of counsel for members of the legislature who seek an injunction to restrain the governor's agents from interfering with an assembly of the legislature as an impeachment body.

The case is to be held in abeyance until a decision is reached on another injunction acting instituted by the governor to prevent a constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to meet on its own call from becoming effective.

A hearing to make permanent the temporary restraining order granted the governor will be held Tuesday.

The next big day is Friday when Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, is due to make a long speech expounding the empire's foreign policy and present conditions in the world. This speech is expected to be sensational and according to present intentions will not be made public.

Lord Curzon, who always has something to say, is expected to reveal what happened in Paris and he also may reveal the deep differences over the British lack of policy which it is said now exists between him and Prime Minister Baldwin. He is also expected to make a pronouncement on the British policy in case a break up of the German reich, which now seems to be in progress, takes place.

British advices today indicate a strengthening of the movement and separatist movement in Bavaria and a diplomat said today that he would not be surprised if former Crown Prince Rupprecht was made king of Bavaria within a week. If this happens the future relations between Bavaria and Berlin will be determined by Rupprecht who it is believed is opposed to complete separation.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 4.—Funeral services were being conducted over the remains of the Rev. Henry Reichardt in the Chapel of W. A. Brown this afternoon.

A stranger, later identified as John S. Pleasants, former superintendent of large cotton mills at Laurel, Miss., and president of the Laurel Rotary Club entered.

"Oh, is there a funeral here?" he asked. "Yes," said Brown. "Then you better make it two," said Pleasants and firing a shot into his head, he fell dying on the flowers near the casket.

TARIFF WILL BE FACTOR—HULL

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Undoubtedly in the opinion of Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, the tariff as a factor in freight rates, the condition of agriculture and the general price level will figure in the next Democratic presidential campaign.

Five cities have intimated their intention of asking for the next convention, he added, New York, Louisville, Atlanta, Cleveland and San Francisco.

U. D. C. Opposes Lee Chapel at W. and L.

(By The Associated Press.)
BRISTOL, Va.-Tenn., Oct. 4.—The Virginia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held their annual convention here today on record as being opposed to a change in Lee Chapel at Washington and Lee University.

The subject was introduced before the meeting in a resolution presented by Mrs. Charles E. Bolling, of Richmond. The resolution was adopted almost unanimously by a standing vote of the gathering. A letter on the subject from Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president of Washington and Lee University was read before the meeting. The letter set forth in detail plans included in the proposed change.

Most of the morning session was devoted to hearing reports from different state chapters. An address by Mrs. Livingston Howe Schuyler, president of the state organization on various phases of the work of the state organization was also heard in the morning.

A junior hour was held in the afternoon with Mrs. Hancock presiding. Mrs. Hancock has charge of the work of the junior order in the state and her work during the past year was warmly commended by the other members in talks.

Election of officers and selection of for the coming year will be of chief interest in the sessions tomorrow. It is understood that are five candidates to be considered for president. The sessions will close tomorrow night.

WOMAN DIES AS RESULT OF FALLING FROM HER HORSE

RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—Miss Louise Gwathmey, 3217, Grace West street, died in Stuart Circle Hospital this afternoon at 1:50 o'clock of injuries suffered when she fell on her head while horseback riding on Monument avenue, beyond the Belt Line railway, early today.

It was apparent to hospital physicians that Miss Gwathmey's condition was critical when she was brought to the hospital and an operation was performed in an effort to save her life. She appeared to rally slightly following the operation, but later in the day became worse and all efforts of the physician proved futile.

Mrs. H. R. Giles, for several years with Harnsberger's Dept. store, has accepted a position with Edward A. Farley.

REVIEW POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)
LONDON, Oct. 4.—The imperial conference today was devoted to a review of political and economic conditions in the crown colonies and protectorates by the Duke of Devonshire, Colonial secretary, which aroused little general interest.

The India delegate demanded a day for discussion of the position of India in regard to the other dominions and particularly the recent decision making Indians only limited to citizenship in the Kenya colony. It was decided to give a day later to this subject.

"COLTS" TO HELP WALTON OUT

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—If Oklahoma has a storm cellar, it will do well to hasten into it and bolt and double lock the entrance. Eugene's colts, a fight loving aggregation of "back o' the yards" are going to the assistance of Governor Walton in his controversy with the Ku Klux Klan. One hundred of the "colts" started for Oklahoma today and 500 more will start at once. There are 2,500 members, all chosen for their ability to fight. The club, which was organized by Frank Ruten, former county commissioner, has subscribed $5,000 to defray the preliminary expenses of sending an "army" to help Governor Walton. A majority of the "colts" are husky young Irish, handy with their fists, but it is assumed they are taking other weapons of offense and defense. They maintained several athletic clubs and are always in trim. Chicago is expecting stirring news from Oklahoma when the "colts" swing into action.

The next big day is Friday when Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, is due to make a long speech expounding the empire's foreign policy and present conditions in the world. This speech is expected to be sensational and according to present intentions will not be made public.

Lord Curzon, who always has something to say, is expected to reveal what happened in Paris and he also may reveal the deep differences over the British lack of policy which it is said now exists between him and Prime Minister Baldwin. He is also expected to make a pronouncement on the British policy in case a break up of the German reich, which now seems to be in progress, takes place.

British advices today indicate a strengthening of the movement and separatist movement in Bavaria and a diplomat said today that he would not be surprised if former Crown Prince Rupprecht was made king of Bavaria within a week. If this happens the future relations between Bavaria and Berlin will be determined by Rupprecht who it is believed is opposed to complete separation.

Promoter of Georgia Fight Enters Appeal On Ertle's Decision

Black Spots On Columbus Ring Encounter Called Successful "Colossal Fake" By Major Jones—Ertle Says First Decision Was Forced—Irishman Forced In Ring With Threats—Promoters and Fans Take Other View Saying Referee and Fight Principals Backed Down.

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 5.—Mike McGuire, of Ireland, retains his worlds light heavyweight championship by virtue of three decisions by Harry Ertle, New Jersey referee.

After ten mediocre rounds here yesterday Ertle made motions with his hands and left the ring only to return within a few moments and declare "Young" Stripling of Macon, Ga., the winner, and three hours later, from the seclusion of a private home issued a statement that the original verdict, a draw, with McGuire to retain his crown, stood.

Confusion reigned throughout the final day of the fight, starting in the small hours of the morning after McGuire had announced a poorly mended broken bone in his left thumb rendered him incapable of defending his championship and increasing until McGuire agreed to enter the ring despite his injury. McGuire and his manager, Joe Jacobs, said they were forced to fight under threats of death and Ertle later asserted that he was forced to change the original decision and that Major John Paul Jones, promoter, had raised the referee's hand as Stripling inserted his glove within its grasp.

Major Jones on the other hand declared Ertle, Jacobs and McGuire had attempted to perpetuate a "colossal fake" and apparently have succeeded in carrying out their intentions.

He declared McGuire had been "played for a sucker" by his manager, had been told Stripling would be an easy victim and that after he had a glimpse of Young Stripling knew he could not win from the Georgia youth and "it was nothing else for him to do except to run out of the fight."

Major Jones declared that a challenge from Georges Carpentier after the latter's win over Joe Beckett, in London, and offers from various promoters running as high as $50,000 influenced the champion in his action, McGuire knowing that his value as a drawing card would be depreciated by a loss to Stripling.

Major Jones appealed to Chairman Muldoon of the New York Boxing Commission, outlining his version of the fiasco.

"Harry Ertle rendered several decisions in the McGuire-Stripling championship bout," said the telegram to the New York commission. The entire vote of all newspaper men gave the decision to Stripling by a wide margin. At the conclusion of the bout Ertle pointed at both men but did not raise either hand. Newspaper men and officials asked him to make his decision. He stated that he would make the decision three hours after the bout. We insisted that he make his decision in the ring. We informed him that over 150 police and 200 soldiers were present for his protection. All we wanted was a square deal. After a great amount of argument he lifted Stripling's arm and declared him winner three hours after the fight he issued a statement that his decision is a draw.

This morning ten of the best surgeons in this state declared after X-ray examination that McGuire's injury was an old one and that same injury in his thumb occurred prior to his signing contract on Labor Day for the bout held today. After much wrangling McGuire agreed to enter the ring to defend his championship. He lost six rounds, carried two and two were draws. This was the average opinion.

"Prior to entering the ring Jacobs insisted that in the event Stripling won the fight, an opportunity be given McGuire.

"He was unable to run out on us and had to fight. We desire you to make a thorough investigation as 8,000 fans here are adhering to Ertle's decision giving Stripling the world's championship."

Major Jones said that after the fight had been called off he pleaded with the champion without avail and then "realized that the lives of the battler and his manager were in danger" with fight fans pouring into the ring with one hand and at the point of a gun. The gun was displayed in my hotel but not actually pointed at me.

"I have never known before of a champion being forced to enter the ring with one hand and at the point of a gun. The gun was displayed in my hotel but not actually pointed at me.

Two hours before the fight, while a crowd was holding sway in the downtown district, Ertle declared Major Jones came to his room in a local hotel and said that "he, McGuire, Jacobs and myself, as long as I was in town, were being watched; that every railroad was covered. I asked him what was the idea and he gave me no answer."

"When I put both of my arms out," Ertle's statement continues, "pointing to both corners to signify a draw, Jones was the first man to come to me and demanded that I give the decision to Stripling, and I told him that my decision was given. Then he said to me that I'd better get back in the ring and I said my decision was given and I could only give it a draw. That if he wanted to give the decision to Stripling he could. Then he said, what do you call a draw, don't you have to raise both arms? and I said that you don't have to raise them. Then I stepped back into the ring and pointed to both corners and said 'a draw'."

Then he said that I would never leave the ring alive. Then he called several newspaper men into the ring and said he would ask them for their decision and I said no matter what they say I cannot reverse my decision, I have given them a draw.

"Then Stripling came over to me and put his hand on my shoulder and said 'I had hold of it. I did not raise his hand as the victor. I still say that it is a draw.'"

"Bob Roper even admitted that I'd never get out of here alive but I said what did I do? I have made my decision."

The referee declared he climbed through the ropes at the close of the fight and was immediately surrounded by a mad throng.

"When threatened and intimidated by such an angry crowd I decided that it would be safer for me to return to the ring and give the decision to Stripling. However, when Major Jones raised both Stripling and my own hands this was not necessary. Stripling is a good fighter and a return battle would settle all arguments," concluded the referee.

Ertle's signal for a draw was plainly visible to newspapermen. He left the ring immediately. In the next instant the press stands became a storm center, spectators rushed over the press tables, some of the occupants of that section being trampled upon. A member of the military police was seen to push Ertle back into the ring. The police jumped to his rescue and moved the crowd back upon the newspapermen.

From the press seats it was plainly audible that an argument was going on inside the crowded ring. The crowd outside the ring continued to push forward, fighting rationally to climb between the ropes.

The champion, who early today had secured a statement from four physicians that he was in pain from an imperfectly healed fracture of a bone in his left thumb, and at whose request the fight was declared off by the promoters, issued a statement to the press before taking his almost fleeing departure from Columbus, declaring that:

"I was really surprised this morning when they forced me to go in the ring with only one hand, to defend my title. I have never known before of a champion being forced to enter the ring with one hand and at the point of a gun. The gun was displayed in my hotel, but not actually pointed at me.

"I was told by a committee of eight doctors," he continued, "that my hand was broken, that I could not go through with the fight. Several bankers of Columbus told me my life wasn't worth two cents, to take that statement any way I wanted, that if I didn't go into the ring I would know what that would mean."

"So I finally decided to go into the ring and asked if there was any way of fixing my hand and they said only by the use of cocaine which was used. Instead of helping me, it hurt me. It made me sick all during the fight. They even wanted to postpone the fight an hour but I said I couldn't, that the cocaine was just about all gone then. I went into the ring with one hand and I believe I scored more points with that one hand than Stripling did with both of his. During the fight I hurt my right hand without the use of either of them. At the end of the fight, they were telling me and were absolutely helpless."

"It was never known in the history of the ring to have a referee's decision reversed. I will meet Stripling in a return match when my hand is well again, any time, any place where I am sure I will receive a square deal."

It was declared that the second conference held today between the promoters, fight principals and physicians was held behind closed doors and no information was given out until the consultation was over, when the announcement was made that McGuire had agreed to go on with the fight.

"They forced McGuire to go through with the fight against his own wishes," declared Jacobs. While all this was going on, in the conference room, Major Jones informed me that the crowd down-stairs in front of the hotel was itching to take me out and hang me to a tree; he even pointed out the window and showed me a tree where they would like to hang me."

ROUND BY ROUND

Mike McGuire, light heavyweight champion of the world, and Young Stripling, of Macon, Ga., met here this afternoon in a ten-round decision bout. The champion, it was announced weighed in at 162 pounds. The challenger was three pounds heavier.

ROUND ONE—The men met in the middle of the ring and they danced around. Stripling shot a left to McGuire's head but was blocked. He shot another one and it breezed by the champion's left ear. The champion landed one to the left kidney and Stripling sent a right to the head. They feined and Stripling backed into a clinch and Stripling landed a light left to the jaw.

ROUND TWO—They danced around and clinched. They sparred and Stripling jumped at the champion. They clinched and Stripling backed away. He landed heavily on the champion's face and shot a left to the stomach. He followed it with a left jab to the face and put across two more as he rushed the Irishman again, the boy Stripling leaped into the air but failed to follow with a blow and the champion laughed. In the clinch McGuire tried to work the rabbit punch but his blows were light and they were in a clinch when the round ended.

ROUND THREE—They went into a clinch and broke away into more feinting by McGuire. They danced around the ring. Stripling showed signs of forcing the fight but the champion was taking matters calmly. Stripling shot a right to the jaw and McGuire attempted to retaliate but was blocked. The Georgia boy got in a right jab to the face bringing a cheer from the crowd. The referee separated them as Stripling leaned over the champion on the ropes. McGuire shot a right to the chin but Stripling ducked another one. Stripling landed a right on the champion's nose and the boy began to trick it from a cut on the champion's nose. They were sparring at the bell.

ROUND FOUR—They mixed it up and exchanged blows to the body. Stripling rushed McGuire who ducked and the challenger limped away through the ropes. McGuire got in a left to the head Stripling continued to rush the champion but McGuire clinched and little damage was done. The youngster shot a left to the jaw but had little effect. McGuire in a clinch shot a right to the kidneys. Stripling's left touched the champion, lightly. Stripling landed a left heavily to the jaw and in the clinch McGuire pounded the boy's knees. They were in a clinch against the ropes when the round ended.

ROUND FIVE—They sparred in the center of the ring and McGuire shot a left to the stomach but it was blocked. The boy missed a haymaker and rushed the champion against the ropes and landed wide swins to the champion's head. McGuire shot over a right and Stripling rushed him and landed a blow to the face. The challenger leaped forward and landed a heavy one on the back of the head. They clinched and on the break away, exchanged high blows. They went into another clinch. Stripling, in coming out of the clinch, landed heavily on McGuire's jaw and the champion went into the ropes. They clinched on the break away the champion got on to Stripling's head.

ROUND SIX—Stripling landed on the champion's chin and they went into a clinch. They began to mill fast and went into another clinch. Stripling led with a left to the jaw and danced around. He shot a right and left but each were blocked. They clinched and the champion landed a right to the head and McGuire landed a right to the head and received a left in return. They mixed it in the clinches. Stripling's right landed on McGuire's face and they clinched. He pushed one to the head. Stripling's mouth but was blocked. Stripling shot a left and in the clinch the champion pounded the challenger's kidneys.

McGuire led a left to the head. Stripling rushed but was stopped with a right to the head. They danced around and the challenger bored in with both fists flying. He landed on McGuire's head and they went into a clinch. Stripling landed a right to the head and pushed the champion to the ropes. Stripling landed heavily on the champion's jaw and the crowd cheered wildly. They fought with the champion up against the ropes and the referee came between them. McGuire continued to pound on Stripling's kidneys and the challenger shot over a left at the bell.

ROUND EIGHT—They clinched. Stripling led with a left to the champion's jaw. He pushed McGuire up against the ropes and got a clean one with his left to McGuire's jaw. The in-fighting the referee had to tug and pull at them and he made them shake hands on the break away. Stripling was forcing the fighting. He landed on McGuire's jaw and they exchanged light blows in a clinch. Stripling swung a haymaker which flew over the champion's head. Stripling shot a left to the jaw and they went into another clinch. McGuire's blows appeared to lack steam and they were fighting in a clinch at the bell.

ROUND NINE—After a short mix up they clinched and exchanged light blows. McGuire led a right to the jaw which Stripling blocked and Stripling swung a wide one which shot the champion up against the ropes. In rushing him, the challenger stumbled to the floor and was up in an instant and they exchanged blows to the head. They clinched and McGuire continued to pound the boy's body. They continued to mix with little damage. Stripling shot a hard right which landed on the champion's head.

ROUND TEN—They shook hands and Stripling shot a left to the face then another, and they fought fiercely with the crowd yelling. The champion landed a right to the jaw. In a mix up the challenger shot a left to the jaw. Mike retaliating with a right behind the head. They mixed it furiously and clinched. Stripling landed a left to the jaw. He shot across another left and clinched. McGuire pounded the back of the challenger's head and mixed it furiously up against the ropes. They clinched and again Stripling led to the face. They were fighting furiously and the bell sounded. Ertle separated the fighters, pushed them aside and jumped from the ring. The crowd immediately rushed for him, and McGuire.

OUR HUMORIST SPADES UP SOME DID-YOU-KNOWS ON THE SERIES

COLUMBUS'S CIRCLE, Oct. 5.—If smoked at an entire series he could get elected sheriff.

Cigars smoked during one war's series game played end to end would reach into the Polo Grounds to Denver.

The lengthy arguments about one unimpaired series of the Woolworth building would reach 40 miles above the top.

The distance taxi drivers carry strangers en route to the game on of their way is even more distant than distant relations to the bleachers to the players would last a doctor 764 years if he doctor sold it instead of giving it away.

Late comers trying to reach the seats make enough noise to make sausage feed 80 families, who really like sausage. And 47 Irish new cuss words are added to our language daily by people whose ice have been stepped on.

The number of foul balls in one game that would have been home runs if the field had been turned around the other way equals how many German marks you could get for a dollar if you were in Germany.

The money spent on three war's series games would buy a whole half pint of real drinking liquor.

All the bets placed on the entire series summed up indicate the war has been a guesser.

The number of hairs turned gray while waiting to see if long flies will be caught would make enough brushes to spank a boy who had rather read a book than see a ball game.

Gives Review of "Crooked Series"

BY JOHN B. FOSTER
(Copyright, 1923, by The Bee)
The world series of 1919 brought forth the greatest of all baseball scandals. This was the "crooked series" in which a little group of the Chicago Americans players sold their club out to professional gamblers who made a clean-up on the unexpected victory of the Cincinnati Nationals. Those players now are in oblivion, and the game goes on. The record: At Cincinnati, October 1, Cincinnati, 9; Chicago, 1.
At Cincinnati, October 2, Cincinnati, 4; Chicago, 2.
At Chicago, October 3, Chicago, 3; Cincinnati, 0.
At Chicago, October 5, Cincinnati, 2; Chicago, 0.
At Chicago, October 6, Cincinnati, 5; Chicago, 0.
At Cincinnati, October 7, Chicago, 5; Cincinnati, 4 (10 innings).
At Cincinnati, October 8, Chicago, 4; Cincinnati, 1.
At Chicago, October 9, Cincinnati, 10; Chicago, 5.
Players for the Cincinnati Nationals were: Patrick J. Moran, manager; Daubert, 1b; Rath, 2b; Groh, 3b; Kopp, ss; Duncan, lf; Neale, rf; Roush, cf; Bariden, c; Wingo, c. Ruether, p; Eller, p; Sallee, p; Ring, p; Luque, p; Fisher, p; Magee and Smith, substitutes.
Players for the White Sox were: William Gleason, manager; Gandil, 1b; Collins, 2b; Weaver, 3b; Risberg, ss; Jackson, lf; Leibold, rf; Collins, rf; Felsch, rf; Schalk, c; Lynn, c; Kerr, p; Cicotte, p; Williams, p; Wilkison, p; Mauer, p; Murphy and McMullen, substitutes.
This was the first world series in which the Cincinnati Reds ever figured, and it is a pity that the team, which had played splendid ball throughout the season, has never received full credit for its excellence. While many persons believe the White Sox would have won in a square series, there are almost as many who think the Reds could have beaten them, even if the gamblers had not stepped in to clinch the results.
Rumors that the series had been "fixed" were in circulation while it was being played, but as no actual proof was adduced, and as the owners had shown almost as great a desire to protect the players, by lengthening the series to a five-out-of-nine affair, the games were permitted to go forward. Had the series been stopped and an investigation undertaken, there is little doubt that its crookedness would have been disclosed before Cincinnati won the championship. Several of the Chicago players suspected that some of their fellow players had been bribed and could have aided in fixing the game. But in any event, the series went on and, with increased prices rolled up a record gate.
Cincinnati players who showed up well in the games were Ruether, who combined good pitching and good hitting in the first game. Roush, whose defensive work has never been equaled in any other series; Kopp, who drove out a hit almost every time he came up with runners on, and Ring and Eller, who pitched exceptional games.
The sorry condition that had existed in the Chicago club during the season continued a topic of bitter comment long after it was over. Criminal proceedings followed in the courts of Chicago. No one was convicted. A finality was put on the future baseball careers of the offending players, when Commissioner Landis took action on their cases as they were brought before him and Gandil, Risberg, Weaver, Jackson, Cicotte, McMullen, Williams and Felsch, were suspended from organized baseball forever. Both Schalk and Collins who had fought for the integrity of their club became greater idols of the baseball public than they had been before.

RAY SCHALK PICKS YANKS TO WIN COMING WORLD SERIES

BY RAY SCHALK
(World's Greatest Catcher.)
This looks like an American League year, a Yankee victory. McGraw's team is great, but Yanks are to show real form. Yankees slumped badly in last two series with the Giants. Spirit of the American League pennant winner will surprise McGraw.
Individual play has been put aside for team work by Yankees.
Babe Ruth should be the hero this year, instead of the "goat." Southpaw Penneck should make a lot of trouble for the Giants.
Giants like fast ball pitching as used by Shawkey and Bush. Jack Bentley, rookie southpaw, may upset the plans of the Yanks.
Superior pitching and Babe Ruth should decide issue.
Who will win the world series? There are a lot of people who would like to know the correct answer to that question. Will the Giants for the third time in succession triumph over the Yankees, despite the opinion of the baseball experts to the contrary? It is my very humble opinion that the Yankees are due to turn the tables on the Giants. I pick the Yankees to win, although I wouldn't bet at all surprised if it took them the limit of seven games to turn the trick.
In picking the Yankees to win, I am not unmindful of the strength of the Giants. McGraw has a great team, a smart aggregation, a club quick to take advantage of any slip on the part of the opposition. However, I am well aware of the punch the Yankees possess, and I cannot set aside the remarkable power of the pitching staff, even though the value of an all-star staff in a short series is a mooted question.
The Yankees are a peculiar ball club. When the team is at the top of its game, getting high-class pitching, it is well high invincible. On the other hand, the Yankees, when in a slump, can look very ordinary. Without a doubt the New York Americans failed to play up to their standard in the last two series with the Giants.
With two clubs so evenly matched as the Giants and the Yankees, I feel that the law of averages will eventually assert itself. On two occasions the Giants have captured the world series. McGraw's club has played the best ball and gotten the breaks. I look for the Yankees to be a different ball club from that of the past two years. Individual play has been shunted aside for team work. The ill feeling that seemed to exist among the stars in other years has been entirely eliminated. A fine spirit pervades the entire club, harmony seems to reign supreme, and the word of Miller Huggins is accepted as the law without the slightest murmur.

The "I am bigger than the manager" idea appears to have entirely disappeared from the ranks of the Yankees. That is going to be a big factor in reversing the success the Giants have enjoyed during the past two years.
In favoring the Yankees to win, I am banking on Babe Ruth to come through. In the two previous clashes Ruth has been a handicap rather than a help to the American League entry. In each series the pitching staff of the Giants has stopped Ruth. Instead of being the big threat of the Yankees offense, Ruth has been practically helpless at the bat. During the season the Yankees are a much stronger club when Ruth is hitting. Unquestionably his absolute failure at the bat hurt the morale of the club in the series.
In the coming series Ruth cannot be worse than he was in the two previous events. However, I look for Ruth to deliver this year. He is a far different player than the Ruth of 1921 and 1922. He is playing baseball, not merely swinging for home runs. With Ruth in the hitting and fielding in top form the Yankees are far more formidable. I am doping Ruth to be a great asset this year rather than a liability.
I look for Southpaw Herb Penneck to be a most troublesome pitcher for the Giants to solve. Penneck may prove to be the man who will swing the margin of victory to the Yankees. Pitchers who can slow up like Sam Jones and Waite Hoyt are the type of right handers that bother the Giants. Fast ball pitching as supplied by Shawkey and Bush is a style rarely favored by the Giants, according to my observations. Bush's fork ball is his best asset against the Giants. Southpaw Jack Bentley is the only

Cy Still Two Homers to Good Over Bambino

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—For more than an hour yesterday Babe Ruth of the Yankees was but one home run removed from Cy Williams of the Phillies in their exciting race for circuit crashing honors, for in the very first inning of the Yankee-Athletic game at the Yankee stadium, the Bambino whacked one of Hasty's offerings into the right field bleachers.
But in a little more than an hour Williams regained his two point advantage. In the eighth inning of the Phillies-Braves game at Boston Cy picked on Batchelder, a rookie twirler, for his 41st home run of the season. Thus today's standing of the home run rivals is Williams, 41; Ruth, 39.
In the Cleveland-St. Louis game Tris Speaker, who on Wednesday equalled a major league record which had stood 33 years, proceeded to wreck that record when he garnered his 57th two-bagger for the season. The old record set by Ed Delahanty, of Philadelphia, in 1889 was 56.

Cy Still Two Homers to Good Over Bambino

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Charley White, of Chicago, and Pal Moran, of New Orleans, each having won a "home town" victory over the other and each ambitious to prove his right to meet Champion Benny Leonard, to clash in Madison Square Garden tonight in the "rubber" engagement of the series.
Three years ago Moran whipped White in New Orleans and a short time later, White won a newspaper decision over Moran in East Chicago. Both contestants are reported to have met the weight requirement of 135 pounds for tonight's contest.

Speaker made three singles, a double and home run in five times at bat. The Athletics, by defeating the Yankees, 7 to 6, robbed the New Yorkers of any chance to run its winning total to 100. Cleveland by whipping St. Louis, 9 to 1, while Detroit was bowing, 9 to 5 to Chicago, lessened the Tiger's chances of a second place. The remaining games in that league found the Red Sox victorious, 7 to 6 over the Senators.

C. Williams' homer was the big incident in the lone National League contest of the day in which the Phillies trounced the Braves, 10 to 2.

SPEAKER FEATURES TEAMS' ST. LOUIS VICTORY

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4.—St. Louis lost its last game of the season on its home grounds today. Being snowed under by Cleveland 9 to 1. Tris Speaker established a new major league record by swatting his 57th two-bagger of the season, shattering the one established by Ed Delahanty in 1889. He also scored 4 runs, and on his four other trips to the plate hit a home run and singled three times.

PHILA. 7; YANKS 6

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The New York Yankees lost whatever chance they had of attaining their goal of 100 victories this season by losing today's game with Philadelphia, 7 to 6. The American League champions have won 95 games and have but three left to play, all with the Athletics. The Mackmen clinched the game in the fifth inning when they battered Carl Mays for four runs. Eddie Rommel checked the Yankees after Hasty was found for four runs in the first three innings.
Babe Ruth performed at first base in place of Wally Pipp and knocked out his 39 home run in the first inning with Dugan on bases.

IS TRAINING

(By Chicago Tribune Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4. Basil Jarvis, trainer of Papyrus, the English three-year-old turf champion, which is now quartered at Belmont Park in anticipation of his "race of the century" against Zev, the admitted king of his age in this country, announced today that he is expected to win the Olympic crack jockey who has led the riding league abroad for nine years, will be on the job and in the saddle when Papyrus gets the finishing touches put on his training for the $100,000 race.

It developed today that Ben Irish, the owner of Papyrus, will be unable to make the trip to see his champion race. It also became known that Papyrus is not for sale, and won't be sold while he's in this country. James Whithead of Peterboro, England, Irish's selector, will make the voyage here on the Olympic and fixed next Monday to look after his clients interests.

ROSE SCOTT WINS SIXTH RENEWAL

(By The Associated Press)

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 4.—Henry Oliver's Rose Scott, driven by Thomas W. Murphy won the thirty-sixth renewal of the Transylvania in handy style at today's grand circuit races here. The miles were not fast but the last quarter of the first mile was trotted in 28 3-4 and the last half of the second mile in 1:00.

Rose Scott trotted in the last half of the first mile :59 1-4. This was the third win for Murphy and the second for owner Oliver for whom Murphy won the 1915 renewal with his sire Peter Scott. The Great Volo was second, trotting a good race but was outtrotted each heat.

The win of the veteran driver Edgers with his namesake was a popular. A new factor appeared in the unfinished 1:10 pace in Doctor T. won the two necessary heats. All of the regular program was decided in straight heats. The veteran Bonnie Del won 2:09 trot rather handily and Pale Face was not extended to beat the 2:16 pacers.

POSTAL THEFTS ARE ADMITTED BY NEGRO CLERK

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Thiefs of $100,000, registered in postal packages, which have puzzled federal investigators for three months were believed explained today with the arrest of William S. Jackson, a negro postal clerk.

Police said he confessed and surrendered $20,000 stolen money. The packages, addressed to foreign countries, had been disappearing daily. Suspicion turned to Jackson when investigators learned he maintained an expensive flat at Ochsberg, N. Y.

The apartment was richly furnished with rare rugs and curios, inspectors said.

"THE BAT" TONIGHT

Big Demands for Seats for Mystery Play at the Majestic.

"The Bat," the most spectacular success ever presented on the Majestic stage, is on at the Majestic theatre tonight. This great mystery play which has thrilled the whole world, needs little, if any, introduction to theatregoers. It is a production of the most play ever produced in this country. It is the one play that has been seen over and over by the same persons.

"The Bat" was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood. Although both of its authors have earned undying fame in the paragon to the other things they have done to say that "The Bat" is the greatest piece of writing ever to come from their pens.

Produced under the able management of Wagenhals and Kemper from whom there are no more successful theatrical managers in the country, "The Bat" has swept through the country, scoring phenomenal successes in cities of every size. It is the one play that beyond question has sounded a universal note. It appeals to all classes; to men and women; to young and old alike. It has been seen by more than 6,000,000 persons and has turned in over $9,000,000 in earnings to its owners. No play can even approach this record for the comparatively brief time "The Bat" has been playing.

The presentation of "The Bat" here is a distinct treat for theatregoers. Prices 50c to $2.00, plus tax.

"BLOSSOM TIME"

Artistic Musical Play at The Majestic Theatre Monday Night.

Small is the wonder that the three act musical play, "Blossom Time," based upon romantic incidents in the life of the famous composer, Franz Schubert, is still the reigning sensation of European capitals, where it has played with tremendous success ever since early in the outbreak of the world war. Never since the early days of the triumphs of Maude Adams on the occasion of her Empire Theatre, New York City, premier, have such wild demonstrations of approval been witnessed as the truly riotous enthusiasm with which the opening night audience received the play at the Ambassador Theatre, New York, over two years ago, and at every performance since have audiences been showering the play and players of "Blossom Time" with praise.

All in all, the theatregoers of Danville will find "Blossom Time" one of the most appealing and satisfying offerings of the season. It is booked at the Majestic next Monday night, October 8th.

"Blossom Time" abounds in comedy; its music is of the true, haunting Viennese school that has been popular here in the past, and most of the melodies were composed by Franz Schubert himself. "Blossom Time" has filled a long-felt want in our theatrical menu. It is the gem of the light opera stage and the greatest musical success produced in a decade.

TANGIER EXPERTS RESUME MEETING

(By Chicago Tribune Service)

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The British, French and Spanish Tangier experts resumed their conference today and are considering the French proposals for the future control of the African port, which it is said, offer some hope for the possibility of an agreement between the powers. The details of these proposals are strictly guarded, but it is understood that the French are willing to enter a guarantee pact for the maintenance of the open door to trade and the non-fermentation of the port in return for recognition of Arab sovereignty.

This is now being examined by the experts who, however, have no power to come to any decision other than to report to their governments. It is said the experts are hopeful that a basis of discussion will be reached enabling a full dress conference.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Further irregularity took place at the opening of today's stock market with most of the leading industrials displaying a heavy tone. Oil held relatively firm, Associated rising a point and General Motors about 3 points; Davidson Chemical, which moved up 1 1/2 and a few investment rails. Western carriers were heavy. The general list softened soon after the opening with selling pressure concentrated in the independent steels, equipments, motors, rubbers and the Pan-American issues. Foundation Company dropped 2 1/2. Foreign exchanges opened firm, French francs jumping 1 1/2 points to 5.97 1/2 cents.

FARMERS GUESTS OF PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation were guests of president Coolidge at luncheon today, the first representatives of any national organization to be thus entertained by Mr. Coolidge since he entered the White House.

Foremost among recommendations made by the federation committee was a suggestion that the government make the next move in the Muscle Shoals matter by indicating to Henry Ford what it is willing to do as a result of the sale of the Gorgas power plant, which was included in the original Ford offer.
